

ALB Indonesia Rising Stars 2025

Indonesia's legal market is experiencing significant growth. As the country enters a new phase of expansion, a fresh generation of law firms is rising to meet the needs of a rapidly changing landscape. ALB recognises these emerging leaders who are not only navigating the complexities of the market but are also actively shaping its future. The list is in alphabetical order.

List by Asian Legal Business

In a testament to Indonesia's dynamic legal landscape, Asian Legal Business (ALB) unveils its prestigious Indonesia Rising Stars 2025, spotlighting the country's most promising legal practitioners under the age of 40. This curated list showcases emerging talents who have demonstrated competence in managing complex transactions, landmark cases, and high-stakes matters for prominent clients.

Selected through a rigorous evaluation process, these rising stars have not only secured significant victories and closed major deals – they have also earned widespread recognition from industry peers and clients alike.

These featured lawyers, all based permanently in Indonesia, represent a new generation of legal expertise across various practice areas, including corporate M&A and dispute resolution. Their selection was based on an outstanding track record of deal execution, innovative legal solutions, and industry accolades.

As Indonesia cement its place as Southeast Asia's leading market, these rising legal talents are instrumental in strengthening regulations and enhancing investor protection.

Among those chosen to make the list is Victor Ricardo of Hendra Soenardi. Appointed partner at the firm at the age of 30, Ricardo's rapid ascent includes being part of the legal team that successfully defended the Republic of Indonesia in
